Brand New Treatment: Nob Hill Spa Nourishing Seaweed Facial

~A comprehensive four layer facial treatment, promoting complete skin renewal~

SAN FRANCISCO ~ The Nob Hill Spa has debuted a new facial treatment – the Nob Hill Spa Nourishing Seaweed Facial – featuring powerful antioxidant botanicals found in European seaweed to detoxify and purify your face, layer by layer. The treatment is 80 minutes for $205.

Ideal for all skin types, this treatment gently removes dead skin accumulated from those cold winter months and replaces minerals and vitamins, leaving your skin revitalized with a supple, moisture rich complexion.

“Give back to your skin what winter took from it with our hydrating Nourishing Seaweed Facial,” stated Dani Lamkin, lead esthetician at Nob Hill Spa.

First, a mineral enriched seaweed serum is massaged into the skin, followed by a layer of hydrating cream with marine exfoliators, evening the skin's texture. Next, a cooling, pure energy seaweed mask is applied, followed by a heat activated mineral-rich thermal mask that allows total penetration of all mask layers, leaving your skin rehydrated, re-mineralized and radiant—ready to bloom.
